LARGE SUMS OF MONEY EMBEZZLED OR LOST.—The Philadelphia journals having stated that immense sums of "British Gold" had been subscribed for the American Free Trade League of New York, besides $50,000 received through Mr. Augustus Belmont—and none of this money having yet been received by the Treasurer of the League—the officers of that Association authorizes us to state that a reward of one-half of any amount that may be recovered will be cheerfully and promptly paid to any one who will furnish such information as will lead to the recovery of the whole, or any portion, of the large amounts which have so generously been contributed to the funds of the League, but which evidently have been lost, stolen, or embezzled by those to whom they have been intrusted.

The press throughout the Union are earnestly requested to give publicity to this notice, for which the League is not able to pay as an advertisement, owing to the impoverished condition of its Treasury; but should the present offer of a reward lead to the recovery of the whole or any part of the funds withheld from the Association, we are authorized to say that the League will at once gladly pay double the usual price to those journals which shall have given an insertion to the present notice.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

The following dispatch is from the San Francisco Call:

SHASTA, February 27, 1867.—A terrible storm has been raging here for two days. Yesterday morning, the stage north got into Whiskey Creek, but was saved through the exertions of several men who happened to be there at the time. Mr. Craddock, stage agent at this place, also met with a narrow escape on attempting to reach Whiskey Creek. In crossing a slough, about four miles from this place, his horses were swept down for fifty yards, but he finally succeeded in getting them out.

Last evening, about six o'clock, the southern bound stage was carried down Clear Creek. The horses, stage, and mails were lost. The driver, and one passenger (a Chinaman,) were saved. The driver succeeded in saving the express box. It is estimated that the water in the smaller creeks raised ten feet in three hours yesterday. All the lower portion of the town was inundated. The storm does not appear to have been severe only for a space of fifteen miles.

EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.—The Reese River Reveille, of March 13th, says:

We have a telegram from Hon. Thomas J. Tennant, dated Carson at noon to-day, announcing that the Governor had issued a proclamation convening an extra session of the Legislature on Friday next, the 15th inst. The object of this extra session we can scarcely imagine. The bill pending as the Legislature adjourned was the Gold bill, for paying salaries and collecting taxes in gold. This was killed by Sumner's five-hours speech, speaking against time. Can it be possible that the Governor could be induced by the prospect of receiving his pay in gold to inflict upon the State, impoverished and almost bankrupt as she is, the great expenditure of this extra session and the raising of the salaries of the already overpaid officers of counties and State some twenty-five per cent.? We can scarcely believe it. We shall wait with anxiety further information as to the objects and acts of the extra session.

THE NICARAGUA STEAMERS.—It is reported that the North American Steamship Company will, in a short time, commence running their steamers bi monthly, instead of once in twenty days, as at present. They have three vessels, the Nevada, Nebraska, and Dakotah, now in course of construction. The first named steamer will run between this port and San Juan del Sur, and her sister ships will take the Atlantic side. The Nevada is expected to be completed next month, and will be sent out at once.—San Francisco Times.

A FANCY DRESS.—At a fancy ball given a Melbourne, Australia, Mrs. Butters, as the "Press," wore a white satin dress, on which were printed the first pages of all the Melbourne newspapers and periodicals, including that of an illustrated journal with a portrait of the Governor. In her hand she carried a gold model of a printing press, from which were struck off in the room some lines from Byron's "Lara."

RIGHT FOR ONCE.—John B. Weller is at Washington City, using his influence with Congress to procure amendments to the Act of 1862, designed to punish polygamy. He spent some time at Great Salt Lake City, en route for the national capital, and is prepared to speak from observation of the demoralizing tendencies of that unlawful indulgence.—San Francisco Times.

WHEN Jeff. Davis was in Congress, he was on a committee for the decoration of the Capitol. On one of the paintings purchased for the purpose, the South was represented by an Arcadian scene, with a negro in the midst, sleeping on a bale of cotton. Davis made a single comment on the picture: "What becomes of the South when the negro wakes up?" Perhaps he can answer it now.

THE VALUE OF THE FRUIT CROP.—The market men of San Francisco say that the value of the strawberry crop is $200,000; raspberry, $100,000; blackberry, $50,000; currant, $35,000; gooseberry, $25,000; figs (green), $25,000; dried, $60,000. San Francisco consumes about two-fifths of all the fruit sold in the State.

What a man should be alphabetically: Affectionate, Bold, Candid, Daring, Enterprising, Faithful, Grateful, Honorable, Indefatigable, Just, Kind, Loving, Moral, Noble, Obliging, Polite, Quick, Religious, Sociable, Truthful, Upright, Valiant, Watchful, Exemplary, Ys, and Zealous.

JEROME, the Wall street broker, is creating a sensation in New York with his monitor sleigh. It is described as little else than a beautiful boat on runners, with erect prow and graceful stern, miniature guns projecting on either side, both an ornament and defence. The crew consists of twenty ladies.

BENEVOLENT.—George Peabody has, during his visit to America, given away to various charitable and educational institutions, near $5,000,000. He is reported to be worth $50,000,000.

THE Atchison Champion says that the pontoons carried away from Topeka by the recent freshet were arrested at Lecompton, and can be taken back with little trouble.

Polygamy.

The last Deseret News comes to us with a two and a half column argument in favor of Polygamy. The News is the recognized Church organ in Utah, and while its utterances are, to the faithful, oracular, it is but fair to add that it maintains a certain dignity, even in defence of its peculiar doctrines, which is commendable. While it evidently thinks that the balance of the world outside of Zion, is reeking with all manner of evil and going straight down to destruction, it does not insist that everybody outside of its pale is an unmitigated scoundrel.

The article before us, however, lacking only the ingredient of mere abuse, is, like all other defences of Polygamy that we have seen, based upon two solitary arguments. First, That Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and the other Patriarchs of the Jews, practiced Polygamy as recorded in the Bible; therefore it is right. They could see no harm in it, and it is sheer hypocrisy for the ungodly world of the present day to sit in judgment upon them. Secondly, That throughout the civilized world, to-day, vice in heinous form exists. Until Christendom shall succeed in the herculean task of abolishing the "social evil," it has no right to complain of the Polygamy of the Mormons. These are the arguments, and whether they be spread over triple columns, or fill the pages of duodecimo volumes, they amount to neither more nor less.

To the first it seems to be a sufficient answer, that the old Patriarchs did a great many things, which it would be neither safe, nor prudent, nor wise for us to do now-a-days. It is not necessary to refer to them in detail, every reader of the Holy Book remembers and can refer to them. What was permitted to be done when Abraham and the world were young, would hardly be a safe rule of conduct in the nineteenth century. Did not Abraham himself deny his wife, Sarah, before King Abimelech, and say she was his sister? And yet, it is written, "Thou shalt not lie." Yet Abraham was a holy man, in those days, and blessed of the Lord. Did not Moses promulgate "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth?" Yet Jesus overthrew this harsh and erroneous doctrine, and gave in its stead the Golden Rule; for old things had passed away. And shall we, in this enlightened age, under the new dispensation, look back three thousand years, and picking out the very vices of the Jews, seek to erect them into virtues and religious duties?

The second substantive argument of the devotees of Polygamy, is like unto the first, and rests on as feeble a foundation. Because in the Christian (or if you please the Gentile) world, a vice exists despite of religious teachings, and in contravention of the law everywhere denounced against it, that therefore its near kinsman should not only be pardoned, but fostered and upheld! The very most that can be made of this argument is, that Polygamy is better than degraded depravity. The argument is itself a confession of the error. But by what system of ethics, or morals, or reasoning, can one wrong be defended by pleading that somebody else has committed another. It may be all very well to ask that your brother cast the beam out of his own eye ere he tries to pluck the mote out of yours; but because he may have a beam in his, does not make it less true or less sorrowful that the mote crosses and spoils your vision. When the civilized world shall teach and enjoin prostitution as a duty; when it shall become the rule, instead of the exception in social life, then may the Mormon Church, with some plausibility challenge a comparison, and say, that our system is less baneful than yours. That time has not yet arrived, and until it does, it is needless to pursue the investigation of the comparison, and decide which system of the two is the more baneful to society, or more intrinsically wrong and immoral. Thank God, mankind have not reached that point where it is necessary to decide that question.

But, aside from the question of morals, it is sufficient to know that the practice of Polygamy is not only opposed to the civilization and sentiments of the age, but it assumes a practical bearing, when it is acknowledged to be in the very teeth of the law of the land. It is no answer to this to say that the law cannot be enforced in Utah, or rather, that it is not. A temporary neglect or failure in this respect, but gives a temporary immunity. That fact does not diminish the offence in the least, nor is it an evidence of Divine interposition, as many affect to believe, but rather of the supineness of the Government. We very much fear that our Mormon friends will signally fail to establish Polygamy on either a Scriptural, moral, natural, or legal basis. It is a house builded upon the sand, and when the storms come and assail that house, great will be the fall thereof.

THE IDAHO TIMES.—The following circular was received by mail, which we insert for the benefit of all concerned:

TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS:—Circumstances over which we have no control, compel us to suspend the publication of the Idaho Times until our material, which has been ordered, arrives from San Francisco. At the time we leased the material we had the solemn promise of the person from whom we leased that we should have the refusal of purchase; this agreement he violated. We also had an agreement inserted in our lease that we should have the privilege of re-leasing, and this is also denied us, and we not wishing to engage in litigation, are compelled to submit.

When our material arrives we shall resume the publication of the Idaho Times, devoted exclusively to the mines and mercantile interests of Idaho, due notice of which will be given.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

Washington, March 18.

In the Senate, Johnson presented the credentials of Philip F. Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, and asked that he be sworn. A lengthy discussion followed, which was participated in by Johnson, Howard, Trumbull, Sherman and Saulsbury. Extracts from Mr. Thomas' speeches and letters were read to show that he was disloyal. The matter was then postponed till to-morrow.

Pomeroy introduced a bill for the consolidation of the Indian tribes, and the erection of qualified Territorial governments for the Indians. Referred.

Howe called up the joint resolution directing the Secretary of War to furnish the State Government of Tennessee with arms and equipments for 25,000 militia; and it was passed.

Washburne introduced a joint resolution reciting that there is now in the Treasury several million dollars, the proceeds of property captured during the Rebellion, which might be disposed of in satisfying the claims of the alleged former owners thereof without the sanction of Congress, and that it is considered proper that such claims should not be called and allowed without the approval of Congress, and concluding by directing that such moneys be immediately transferred by warrant to the United States Treasury, to be drawn therefrom only by authority of law. Passed.

New York, March 18.

During the passage of the procession of Irish Societies, in East Broadway, to-day, a truckman in endeavoring to remove his team from the route, according to the orders of the police, moved too slow to suit the members of one of the societies, and they made a serious attack on him. The police endeavored to protect the truckman, when the Irish attacked them and drove them from the ground. As soon as reinforced, the police endeavored to make arrests, when they were attacked by a large force of Irish, who seriously wounded some fifteen of the police. Larger reinforcements of police arriving, the Irish withdrew. Later in the day several of the rioters were taken from the procession to the station house. All sorts of weapons were used by the Irish, including bludgeons, clubs, swords, pistols and muskets.

New York, March 19.

The Tribune's Columbia, S. C., special of last evening says one of the most remarkable meetings ever held in that State had taken place that day, the occasion being the celebration by negroes of the passage of the bill enfranchising the blacks. By invitation, Gen. Wade Hampton, ex-U. S. Senator Dussausse, Edward Arthur, Hon. W. J. Taliaferro and James G. Gibbs addressed the meeting. Rev. David Pickett and Beverley Nash, both colored, also spoke. The sentiments expressed were highly honorable to both sides. The negroes are gratified with the spirit of political affiliation in which they have been met, and the whites are equally pleased to find the colored men identified with the true interests of the State. Should a State Convention be called the latter would probably nominate and support the best men in the State, and, as declared by Nash, they will urge Congress to repeal the disfranchising clause which deprives them of the services of those in whom they have the greatest confidence.

New York, March 19.

The recent enthusiasm among the Fenians of this city had been giving way to apathy for the previous few days, but on the receipt of news from Ireland yesterday of the interruption of the wires connecting with the Cable, hope revived among them, and their belief in a general uprising in Ireland on St. Patrick's Day was reiterated.

The Trustees of the Peabody Fund for the education of children in the South, will probably hold a meeting in this city during the week, when it is expected Mr. Peabody will be present and give his views concerning the distribution of the fund.

New York, March 19.

The Herald's Vera Cruz correspondence, of the 4th inst., says the work of fortifying that city was being pushed rapidly forward. The artillery of the departing corps had been shipped, and the evacuation of the place would not last more than six days longer. Marshal Bazaine was expected to leave in a day or two on a trip to the interior. Bazaine was said to have been robbed of $352,000. The city of Laxealingo had been recaptured by the Liberals.

Queretaro correspondence says that Maximilian in his march from the Capital had been greatly annoyed by guerrillas, and that his winter wardrobe was reduced by forced loans to a shirt, a pair of socks, and a piece of soap. His objective point was San Luis Potosi.

New York, March 19.

The Herald's Southern correspondence says that in Virginia the military rule has already been declared supreme, but the fact of civil law being abolished is hardly apparent. In Charleston, S. C., the change is accepted with apathy, no one except fire-eating politicians seeming to take the matter much to heart. In Louisiana, General Sheridan's order postponing the New Orleans election was accepted without disturbance. The Louisiana House referred the resolutions relative to Governor Wells' impeachment to a special committee.

The Tribune's special says it is reported on good authority that both Collector Smythe and Surveyor Wakeman will be removed this week. Their successors, together with the Naval Officer, will be sent to the Senate by next Saturday. The Collector and Naval Officer will be Democrats, and the Surveyor a Radical.

From Oregon.

The Oregonian of March 2d contains the following:

From statistics published in the Victoria Colonist, we learn that Oregon sent to that port, from January 1st, to November 15th, 1857, produce and goods to the amount of $69,540. During the whole year, Victoria shipped to Oregon only the value of $33,567, showing a difference in favor of Oregon of $33,973. The exports from British Columbia to the United States in 1866 was less by $65,352 than during the previous year, and less by $65,460 than in 1864. Thus it will be seen, that we are gaining steadily on our Northern neighbor in the advantages of trade.

The Vancouver Register says on this question: "A determined effort will be made this summer to secure the Idaho and Montana trade for the Columbia river route. We are assured, upon pretty good authority, that freight from San Francisco to Portland will be reduced to one dollar per ton, the O. S. N. Co. will reduce the price on freight on that line, and by properly regulating the times of departure of the different steamers, stages, etc., the trip will be made in much less time and at less cost than the trip over the Chico route."

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Barnes, a young man employed at the Western Hotel, drove Mr. Smith's new coach down on the Exchange wharf, and when about to leave he drove under a low beam, and not stooping low enough, was caught by the beam just back of his neck, and crushed back with great force against the coach. Very fortunately, the horses were stopped in time to avert a serious injury. Mr. Barnes was taken to the Western, and soon recovered the use of his legs, temporarily lost by concussion of the spine, and in an hour or two he was comparatively comfortable, though not able to move without acute pain. He had a very narrow escape, indeed.

Eberhard Shub, an old resident of Vancouver county, died on Tuesday last at his residence on Mill Plain, after a protracted illness. Mr. Shub settled in this county at an early day, and was universally respected by his neighbors and acquaintances as a man of sterling worth and integrity. The deceased was a native of Germany, but resident for a long time in the Western States.

A dispatch from Jacksonville of the 20th of February, says: The Rogue River Valley Woolen Manufacturing Company have to-day filed their articles of incorporation. Their place of business is Ashland, Jackson county, Oregon. The Capital Stock is $30,000. The Incorporators are James T. Glenn, R. B. Hargadine, John E. Rose, J. B. Wrisley, Jas. Thornton, John H. Walker, J. B. McCall, and M. Hanley.

OUR IDAHO LETTER.

IDAHO CITY, March 13, 1867.

EDITOR VEDETTE:—The American people and the nations of Christendom are looking forward with anxiety to our future course. The eyes of the enlightened world are bent upon Utah and Idaho. Within the next few years the waves of civilization will roll eastwardly from the Pacific, and westwardly from the Atlantic, until they culminate somewhere on the plains; and the breakers will engulph Mr. Indian and Mr. Mormon in one common seething billow of dissolution. Brilliant cities will spring up out of chaos; the oasis on your desert will bloom into magnificent proportions; Anglo Saxon brains and Mongolian muscles are carrying on the national enterprise that must overwhelm the savage in his fastness, and trim the polygamic fungi which adheres with such pertinacity to our skirts; both of which do so bitterly oppose the excelsior march of intellect, science and art into the valleys and mountains of the Territories. Then will poor "Lo" (when he is buried) bury the hatchet, and Brother Brigham (when he can't help it,) return to the one-wife system of his forefathers; and the great international bond, fraternizing Europe, Asia and America in a joint interest of commerce, will have been signed, sealed and witnessed.

Take much courage, MR. VEDETTE; we are approaching the zenith of earthly ambition; you will live to see Utah, Idaho and Montana, bright stars in the constellation of Columbia's flag; you will live to see their valleys teeming beautifully with towns and hamlets, their mountain crests glowing in the azure sunlight with heavy trains speeding to and fro bearing the products of two hemispheres, and mingling and commingling the nations of the orient with those of the occident.

But I must to gossip. We are having cool, frosty night and sunshine days; there begins to be some rustle and stir once more; spring is opening and the tide of immigration from Oregon fairly set in. The Columbia river has had no ice this winter—an unusual occurrence—and boats of the O. S. N. Co. are now running daily between Portland and Umatilla. Stages arrive in Idaho City and depart daily, in each direction. The busy season with its excitements is at hand.

From Yuba and the South Boise country, we have most encouraging reports. The quartz ledges in that direction are giving more hopeful promise than ever before; Yuba, especially, being destined to soon challenge any portion of this coast for the production of gold. A direct mail between this city and those districts, a distance of forty-five or fifty miles, is much needed.

From the Owyhee Avalanche, Idaho's nonpariel, whose editor is a man of delicate perceptions, we learn that Hill Beachy intends to run his stages, in three days time, between Hunter's Station and Ruby, which will bring Idaho City within five days of the metropolis of the Pacific; and, as the Central Railway, with its hive of twelve thousand Chinese laborers, pushes eastward from the Sierra Nevada we shall continue, month by month, and week by week, to be brought nearer the great centres of the continent, and into almost hourly communication with all parts of the earth.

There are numerous rumors of opposition stage lines on the Owyhee and Umatilla routes, but at present there is little necessity for them. The increasing passenger and fast freight trade is turning altogether in the direction of the two converging lines of railroad, which are so rapidly approaching the valley of the Great Salt Lake.

The Order of Good Templars has recently been organized in Idaho City. As is usual in such cases, the very persons who can give the least tone or practical effect to anything of that kind, and who can of all others do the most by their presence to render the institution unpopular, were the first to poke their noses in. If the Order, good as it may be, can flourish in Idaho City, we may reasonably look for the second coming of Mr. Ainslie's governor very soon, and the millennium.

A good thing is told of Judge Roseborough the other day. You see it is generally understood that Colonel Samuel A. Merritt has been "retained" by the plaintiff in a suit to be commenced for damages for seduction, and which will probably be entitled "Millar vs. Bowman." The Colonel was therefore on the qui vive for items from the opposition. Judge R. enters a place where the Colonel was sitting, when the following conversation ensued:

Judge R.—"Colonel Merritt," [beckoning] "I wish to speak with you a moment." [Col. M. approaches]. The Judge continues, "I have a proposition to make to you, sir."

Col. Merritt—[Very anxiously,]—"Ah! indeed! what is it—who from—Bowman?"

Judge R.—[Vehemently]—"Bowman, h—ll! No, Sir! I was about to ask you, sir, to go and take a drink!"

[We knew Samuel in Mariposa county, California, when he represented that county in the Senate, and we are satisfied he refused.—ED. VEDETTE.]

There is one suggestion I have to offer you which will be quickly seconded by every merchant in this city, to wit: We want a daily telegraphic report of San Francisco price of greenbacks. There is a project on foot now, by some, to place the national currency at par in their business transactions, taking dust or notes, at the option of the payor, with twenty-five per cent. off for coin. Whether this is adopted generally, or in part, we need daily advices on the money market. Can you oblige us? [We will endeavor to do so, friend Courteney.—ED. VEDETTE.]

While on this subject, it may be as well to warn all strangers who come this way, against taking dust as a currency at any price; you are liable to get bit, and badly, in any house you enter. Our County Treasurer, J. W. Wood, who is considered an expert in judging dust, took one hundred and twelve and a half ounces to an assayer last week to get it cleaned, previous to paying a warrant on the forty five per cent. fund, and Mr. Assayer put the stuff in acid and boiled away over four hundred dollars! Even the women in Idaho City, and on Buena Vista Bar, take a basket in one hand and a sack of bogus dust in the other and go to market, with a sang froid that would excite the envy of an old Five Point thief. All persons who contemplate visiting Idaho this season, will do well to be on their guard. There is plenty of coin here, and you are not compelled to take our dust. If the best judges of the article are so easily deceived, how much less are you expected to take it who know nothing of it at all.

The World, of Saturday last, has an item about a young couple "down east," who had been married only six days, buying a neat crib for a baby, but does not even mention the authentic incident of a young lady in this immediate vicinity who has urgent need of a "crib," although she has never been married at all!

A correspondent of the same paper, called "Coal Oil," writing from Pioneer, says that ninety ladies and gentlemen came home from a Fenian celebration the other day singing the "Star Spangled Banner, with variations." What the variations consisted of, he doesn't deign to tell us, but we are left to suspect it was "good old Irish whisky," of course.

Our hurdy-gurdy society has opened for a spring season at Gans' Hall. All the thieves can now amuse themselves, and Mr. Barber's boarders (see his card) can spend their money free. The County Treasury is the richer by them to the amount of ten dollars per night according to law.

Some very interesting things are laid over to be written about in my next.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers, makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four young Territories.

ABORIGINES IN COURT.—It was amusing to see some ten or twelve Indians in Court yesterday, who were there for the purpose of testifying in the case of J. Taylor, who was charged with selling liquor to them. Dave, the informant, spoke tolerable English, and asserted that he did not indulge in the ardent, but sometimes drank lager beer "leetle bit." When they were asked if they understood the nature of an oath, they replied, "O yes, me know; me tell lie, me go in stone house," or words to that was what the interpreter informed the Court. They all seemed to fix on "Honorable Bob," of transparency notoriety, as the individual who furnished the liquor. They were very attentive to the proceedings in Court, and listened to the eloquence of counsel as if they understood it all. The case was in a nutshell, and so the jury looked at it, as will be found by their verdict in another part of our paper.

A NEW PAPER.—We received yesterday the first number of the Beaver Head News, published at Virginia, Montana Territory. It is a most diminutive candidate for public favor that we have ever seen. The name of Hosmer is at the head of the editorial column, as well as being announced as proprietor. This little sheet, which is about five by six inches in dimensions, may, one of these days, become a full grown paper. The first issue seems to have been gotten up without regard to all rule; at least, there is an evident absence of "column rules," and as we have a surplus, we will be willing, on application, to contribute a sufficient number to help the little bantling along. Send us your paper, little one.

THE BLACK AND STICKNEY AFFAIR.—We learn, by speciel telegraph, that the charges against Black and Stickney for murder, an account of which we recently published from the Chicago papers, that the case at present stands thus: After a preliminary investigation of the case, Black was committed to the custody of the United States Marshal of Utah Territory, and Stickney was admitted to bail, in the sum of $10,000, to answer the indictment that might be preferred against him by the Court of the Second Judicial District of that Territory.

THE LECTURE.—Phonography is the subject of a free lecture at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms this evening, and will be delivered by A. F. Sloan, Esq., a gentleman whose long experience and practice has made him thoroughly conversant with the subject, and whose ability to instruct his audience with the practical importance of a knowledge of the art, is well known to need comment from us. The lecture is free, and we hope to see a full attendance.

SELLING LIQUOR TO INDIANS.—The trial of J. Taylor, for violation of the law prohibiting the sale of liquor to Indians, has been before Judge Clinton for several days. The were only present yesterday, and therefore heard but a portion of the testimony. The jury in the case, after a few moments deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty; and assessed the fine at $100, and costs of court. Taylor's counsel filed notice of appeal.

DEATH NEWS.—Yesterday, Mr. H. C. Hubbell, of this city, received the sad tidings of the death of his brother, Mr. Hurlbert Hubbell, who died in San Pablo, California, on March 1st, of diptheria, or putrid sore throat. In addition to this, he was also informed that his mother was at the point of death. He left this morning for California, expecting to return in a short time.

PLEASANT WEATHER.—After several days of mild spring weather, we were visited yesterday with rain, hail and snow alternately during the day, accompanied with strong winds. During the afternoon a blustering storm prevailed, which drove all pedestrians from the streets, and as the "boys" say, made everyone "seek his hole."

HAS GONE.—Mr. Wells has not gone to California. The error made by our announcement of his departure, was from the fact that his personal friends handed his name at the office, just as we were going to press. We are pleased to say that his genial smile still illumines the circle which he adorns.

TRADE DULL.—Business in the city still continues dull; our market reports remain unchanged, and we await a permanent state of affairs for a sufficient time as will ensure peace and comfort to travel, ere we look for improvement in the trade and commerce of Utah.

LOST.—Between Seigel's corner and the Theatre, on Theatre or 1st East street, a bunch of keys, attached to a steel ring. The finder will be rewarded by leaving same at

MORSE, WALCOTT & Co's.

A HISTORY NOTE.—The suit of Marshall & Co. against E. R. Young & Sons in the First District Court, was argued on Monday. The action was for the recovery of a certain note, given on a promissory note. The Court reserved its decision under advisement.

ARRIVED.—The Eastern coach arrived last night about 9 o'clock, with a large mail. The messenger came through, having left Denver on the 8th, and Denver on the 9th.

WOOD AND COAL YARD.—Wood, $15 per cord in log, full measure. Coal, $2 per cwt., delivered free. Oats and barley

CONFESSED JUDGMENT.—In the attachment case of Eldredge & Clawson vs. Henry Peak, defendant confessed judgment to the sum of $40 in the U. S. District Court.

From Montana.

The Post has the following in relation to mines in Montana:

THE BEST YET.—The Hawkeye (Postlewaite's) Mill cleaned up on the 10th inst., from 5¼ days run, 345 oz. of retort; value, $6,208.25 coin, $7,600 greenbacks. Look close for your laurels in Edgerton, for Maddison is gaining fast and sure.

Some two or three different companies are at work on the Oro Cache, and all taking out good ore. The Excelsior Company are about starting their tunnel for the John How lode. Sufficient work has been done on the surface to prove that it is a very valuable piece of property.

The Scranton Mill is not running at present. There is not much doing in the gulch, the winter having been too severe to work. The Harris' brothers have run their tunnel into Eagle hill 375 feet. The greater portion has paid well, and as soon as they get water enough to work with, we expect to hear of their getting big pay. Above, and on the same side of the hill, is Layton and Wildman's tunnel. It is in fifty feet and not through the rim-rock. On the opposite side of the hill, T. L. Miles & Co. have got into pay dirt, and are taking it out, but not washing it. They are waiting for more water and warmer weather. It prospects well.

On the opposite side of the gulch is Mr. Boardman's tunnel, which he is running for claim No. 17, on the Kearsarge lode. The tunnel is 17 feet in, and is to be run some 60 feet further. A little further up the gulch is A. A. Nasler & Co's tunnel. They are in 196 feet, and are after the Butler lode. The Lucas Company are taking out some excellent ore, but have had to stop sinking until they get machinery up to hoist the dirt and water. Just above the Lucas Mill several companies are at work on the bar, and they are being handsomely rewarded.

A BRILLIANT VISITOR.—The most brilliant meteor we have any record of in Montana, made its appearance on last Sabbath evening about 7 o'clock. When the first flash attracted attention to it, it was almost directly over the city, and traveling in a southeasterly direction, was in view several seconds. Two separate explosions threw off luminous particles before it disappeared over the mountain, and although some assert that a rushing sound could be heard, as also the explosions, the evidence is not well sustained. The body of the meteor appeared from here something larger than the sun, and was of that deep red color which the sun sometimes shows near the horizon, with brilliant scintillations of light. The elevation must have been great, as it was seen several degrees above the mountains by persons at Sterling, 30 miles distant. The flash lit up the heavens like a continuous flash of sheet lightning, and the streets were almost light as day. Every person rushed streetward to divine the cause of the light, and the editor of the Beaver Head News, says "he thought the world was coming to an end, and rushed for the church." It was a beautiful sight; but it is to be hoped that these lawless wanderers of the realms of space will give our local habitations a wide berth in their eccentric orbits.—Montana Post, March 12th.

NEW MEXICO NEWS.—Thefts and troubles with white and red rascals are still the burthen of our New Mexico advices. Eight thousand sheep were run off by Indians a short time since, near Albuquerque, by but thirty Navajoes.

Three travelers were scalped near Mesilla City, four hundred miles down the Rio Grando from Sante Fe.

The army in New Mexico is unable to watch every corner, so that the ranch-men and pilgrims, from place to place, have to run the Indian blockade the best they can.

Ash Upson, formerly of Colorado, is now the editor and publisher of the Press, for a stock company, at Albuquerque, eighty miles below Sante Fe. He has improved it somewhat, though there still is room to make it (and much more so the Sante Fe papers,) a readable, live sheet.

Jack Henderson, the Denver '59er, is an Indian Agent down there somewhere. Henry Springer still holds forth at Albuquerque, and John D. Baker at Sante Fe.

Fifteen hundred Indians are reported near Fort Goodwin, between Albuquerque and the Arizona mines. Encouraging idea this, to emigrate thither in the spring.—Denver Daily.

From the Walla Walla Statesman of February 22d we glean the following:

A Mrs. Clark, residing at Waitsburg in this county, came to a sudden death on Saturday last by taking an overdose of medicine. At first she was supposed to have committed suicide, but, on further investigation, it was ascertained that the fatal dose had been taken by mistake. Mrs. C. was an estimable lady, and her death is greatly regretted.

Rumor has been busy during the week circulating a report that a coal vein had been discovered not far from this city. Charley Brooks is said to have been the fortunate discoverer. Specimens of what appear to be the croppings of coal are exhibited in proof of the statement. A gentleman whose statement can be relied upon, assures us that he knows of a vein within 20 miles of Walla Walla, and that it is his intention to arrange for its working in the course of the coming season.

THE FARMER AT WOODBURY'S SHOP.—Coffin, in his "Four Years of Fighting," tells the following incident, which occurred as our troops were moving to Gettysburg:

When the Fifth Corps passed through the town of Liberty a farmer rode into the village, mounted on his farm wagon. His load was covered by white table cloths.

"What have ye got to sell, old fellow? Bread, eh?" said a soldier, raising a corner of the cloth and revealing loaves of sweet, soft, plain bread, of the finest wheat, with several bushels of ginger cakes.

"What do you ask for a loaf?"

"I havn't any to sell," said the farmer.

"Havn't any to sell! What are ye here for?"

The farmer made no reply.

"See here, old fellow, won't you sell me a hunk of your gingerbread?" said the soldier, producing an old wallet.

"No."

"Well, you are a mean old cuss. It would be serving you right to tip you out of your old bread-cart. Here we are marching all night and all day to protect your property and fight the rebs. We havn't had any breakfast, and may not have any dinner. You are a set of mean cusses round here, I reckon," said the soldier.

A crowd of soldiers had gathered, and others expressed their indignation. The old farmer stood up on his wagon-seat, took off the tablecloths, and replied:

"I didn't bring my bread here to sell. My wife and daughters set up all night to bake it for you, and you are welcome to all I've got; and I wish I had ten times as much. Help yourselves, boys."

"Hurrah! hurrah! hurrah!" "Bully for you!" "You're a brick!" "Three cheers for the old man!" "Three for the old woman!" "Three more for the girls!"

They threw up their caps, and fairly danced with joy. The bread and cakes were gone in a twinkling.

"See here, my friend, I take back all the hard words I said about you," said the soldier, shaking hands with the farmer, who sat on his wagon overcome with emotion.

ARTICLES WANTED.—The Rural Southerner hits off the fashionable airs of the present day in the following style:

Wanted—An intended bride who is willing to commence house-keeping in the same style in which her parents began.

Twenty fashionable young ladies who dare to be seen wielding a dust brush, or darning her brother's stockings, if a gentleman should happen to make an early morning call.

Ten independent young ladies, of "good families," who dare to wear their last Winter's bonnets to church on a fine Sunday.

Fourteen young ladies "who are anybody," who dare be seen in the street wearing shoes with soles thick enough to keep their feet warm.

Fifty young ladies of sufficient age "to go in company," who dare confess they have ever made a loaf of bread or a pudding.

A LESSON FOR THE GIRLS.—My pretty dears—you are no more fit for matrimony than a pullet is to look after a family of fourteen chickens. The truth is, my dear girls, you want, generally speaking more liberty and less fashionable restraint, more kitchen and less parlor, more leg exercise and less sofa, more puddings and less piano, more frankness and less mock modesty, more breakfast and less bustle. I like the buxom, rosy cheeked, full-breasted, bouncing lass, who can darn stockings, make her own frocks, mend trowsers, command a regiment of pots and kettles, milk the cows, feed the pigs, chop the wood, and shoot a wild duck as well as the Duchess of Marlborough or the Queen of Spain; and be a lady withall in a drawing room.—[Mrs. Ellis.

MR. BONNER once went to Mr Bennett, of the New York Herald, and asked if he could have three pages in tomorrow's paper for his advertisement for the Ledger. The answer was, if he would pay a double price, he could have all he wanted, upon which Mr. Bonner said he would take the whole paper. The consequence was that the Herald, the next day, had nothing but Bonner's advertisement of the Ledger in it. On one page, in large letters, it was stated that an article written by Henry Ward Beecher would be in the Ledger, and so on through the whole eight pages. Mr. Bonner did not advertise all he had to sell, but only attracted attention to the Ledger.

ANTIDOTE.—A German forest keeper, eighty-two years old, not wishing to carry to the grave with him an important secret, has published in the Leipzig Journal, a recipe he has used for fifty years, and which, he says, has saved several men and a great number of animals from a horrible death by hydrophobia. The bite must be bathed as soon as possible, with warm vinegar and water, and when this has dried, a few drops of muriatic acid, poured upon the wound, will destroy the poison of the saliva, and relieve the patient from all present or future danger.

GOVERNOR LOW has purchased the magnificent residence of R. C. Hillyer, at the corner of Gough and Sutter streets, San Francisco, for $25,000, and will occupy it immediately.
